OFFICIAL OPENING OF THE AFTRA 9th CONFERENCE, ACCRA GHANA.

Minister of Basic Education, Honorable Angie Motshekga, has arrived with the DBE and SACE delegation to attend the Africa Federation for Teaching Regulatory Authorities (AFTRA)'s 9th Teaching and Learning Conference and 11th Roundtable currently taking place in Accra, Republic of Ghana. Our Minister will be presenting on the South African teacher policies during a dedicated Ministerial session on the this afternoon.

The theme of the Conference is “Unpacking Teaching and Learning in Africa for Excellence” which is derived from UNESCO’s (2017) idea of “Unpacking SDG 4”.

Today's session is focusing on the addresses by the Ghana president and Minister of Education. This will be followed by the Ministerial session where the Ministers from various countries, including our own South African Minister will be making presentations on Teacher policies in their respective countries.
