SACE CEO CONDEMNS MURDER OF SOUTH COAST PRINCIPAL AND WIFE

The South African African Council For Educators(SACE) CEO, Mme Ella Mokgalane strongly condemns the murder of a Principal from Maria Trost Junior Primary School in the Ugu District, KZN. The victim (Principal) and his wife were shot and killed at their home.

It is quite evident that the teaching profession is under threat with the increase of violence. There is an indication that our schools are becoming dangerous for our teachers. SACE calls onto the public to assist authorities in dealing with the increase of violence against our teachers. The teaching profession must be protected and promoted at all times.

With sadness, SACE wishes to extend a message of condolences to the family of the victims and education fraternity.
