SACE INAUGURAL OF THE “FEMALE PRINCIPALS LEADERSHIP” CONFERENCE

The South African Council for Educators (SACE) will host a conference for the Inaugural of Female Principals in Leadership on Friday, 29 October 2021 to be held in Durban, KZN Province. As SACE celebrate the 2021 World Teachers' Month under the theme: Teachers at the heart of education recovery, the conference will be a beacon of inspiration within the teaching fraternity, empowering all female Principals who are heads of schools located within the Kwazulu – Natal Educational Districts to accomplish their career goals.

In a panel of discussions and interactive workshops, attendees will get an opportunity to interact with leaders across different industries, explore various approaches to leadership, and discuss future opportunities for success. Amongst the speakers will include Ms Ella Mokgalane (SACE CEO), Dr Kgalima Kanoute (KZN CoGTA) and Dr Nondumiso Khumalo (Publisher). The conference will also create networking opportunities for female leaders within the teaching profession.
